PRESS RELEASE

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ADMISSION FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

The University of Delhi is committed to providing world class education to all Indian as well as foreign students. In this pursuit, the University of Delhi will invite the applications from foreign nationals from 15th February, 2018 for Ph.D., M.Phil., Postgraduate and Undergraduate Programmes for the academic session 2018-2019. The eligible foreign applicants are informed that the registration for all the programmes will be made online.

The University is committed to admit more foreign students, and the Foreign Students' Registry office staff will take special care in handling the specific queries of foreign students through email (fsr@du.ac.in, fsr_du@yahoo.com) and phone (+91-11-2766 6756). The students would be able to apply online through the Foreign Students' Registrar office website <http://fsr.du.ac.in>.

The University offers more than 250 programmes at various levels. There is no entrance test for admission to these programmes for foreign student applicants. The programmes on offer include various disciplines encompassing Arts, Social Sciences, Commerce and Sciences which fit students' needs and aptitude from different backgrounds. The University provides a myriad of opportunities for its students by making available world class infrastructure and research facilities. There is zero tolerance towards sexual harassment and any form of discrimination. The University upholds the value of pluralism and is sensitive to diversity of cultures, ethnicity, language, religions, nationalities, gender and physical and psychological states of all students.
